MARPAC DONATES TO SAIPAN FISHERMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Saipan, Northern Mariana Islands (NMI) – Guy F. Pudney, Resident Manager of MARPAC, presents a check on behalf of Budweiser to Saipan Fishermen's Association President Gene Weaver on May 17, 2016, as part of the company's support towards this year's annual Mahi Derby and the 32nd Annual Saipan International Fishing Tournament on July 9-10, 2016. From left are MARPAC Sales Manager James Lee, Weaver, and Pudney.

The Northern Mariana Islands of Saipan, Tinian, and Rota are a chain of idyllic islands in the West Pacific, offering a friendly, fun and exciting vacation in paradise. They are an excellent destination for families, adventure and sports-minded travelers, as well as business people looking for a tropical haven. Adventurous travelers from Asia, Australia, Europe and elsewhere looking for new travel discoveries will find them in the Mariana Islands, just three hours travel from most cities in Japan, and four from Asia and Australia. The Northern Marianas are served from Tokyo and Osaka in Japan by Delta and Asiana Airlines. From Korea, Asiana provides direct daily flights from Seoul and Busan and Jeju Air provides daily service from Seoul. From China, direct flight service from Shanghai, Beijing, Guangzhou, to Saipan is available. United Airlines has daily flight connections from nine cities in Japan to Saipan with one stop. United States mainland connections can be made by Delta Air Lines to Saipan via Tokyo Narita, and United Airlines via Guam. Russian and Taiwanese visitors usually arrive via Seoul.
